A defendant who is convicted of a criminal offense punishable by a fine only is entitled to alternative methods of satisfying the judgement against them if they are unable to pay the fine(s), cost(s) in whole or in part.

1. A payment plan, allowing the defendant to make payments towards the fine(s) and cost(s) in designated intervals. Note that if any amount is paid more than 30 days after judgement assessing the fine(s) and cost(s) then a $15 time payment fee must be assessed.
2. Disposition of the amount assessed by performing community service. There are many options that meet the requirements of the law for community service. See ART 45.049 CCP for full details. A defendant is entitled to a minimum of $100.00 credit for every 8 hours performed.
3. If performing community service imposes an undue hardship, a defendant who is indigent or who lacks sufficient resources to pay is entitled to a waiver of the fine and costs, in whole or in part.
